

OS-APLE PARADE

JUBILEE IS TIGHT HERE STROG

Big Os-Aple Parade of Decorated Vehicles Ends the Celebration.

THERE WILL BE MANY OUT OF TOWN FLOATS

The climax of the fifth annual Os-Aple jubilee, the Os-Aple parade, will close the jubilee this evening. The final day of the annual harvest festival was filled with interesting events, including band concerts downtown, sports at the Os-Aple fair, automobile pilgrimages over the city and down the valley for the visiting women, baseball games at Washington park and nightingale trip to Santa Fe, the first and the manufacturing districts.

Friday was the big day of the jubilee and the crowds broke all records for attendance during the week. Although military day Thursday was the big day of the jubilee week for El Pasoans, Os-Aple day proved to be the most successful for bringing out of town crowds, as the streets were filled with visiting families from the mining camps, ranches and cities of the southwest. Stores and shops are doing the record business of the year and the stores were so crowded following the parade that it was almost impossible to be waited upon.

Open house was kept in all of the clubs for the visitors, and they are being shown every possible attention by the El Paso people, who are banding themselves into an entertainment committee to see that the visiting people do not miss anything and are well cared for while they are the guests of the city.

The Os-Aple parade, which will start at 7 o'clock this evening, will be the longest and most spectacular since the jubilee became a feature of fall life in El Paso. More bands, more floats, more floats and decorated floats than ever will appear in this parade. Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley will appear in the parade as a complete division. The allegorical history of the Mesilla valley will be shown in the floats from the upper valley and queen Allam and her court will reign in the Mesilla valley division. Other cities of the southwest will be represented in the parade.

It will be reviewed by Gen. E. Z. Steever and staff, Mayor C. Kelly and the city council and the jubilee association officials and committees. The reviewing stand will be on the north side of the city hall and the parade will pass in review before this stand.

The route of march will be as follows: South on Oregon street to Pioneer plaza, south on El Paso street to the east to Campbell, north to San Antonio, east to Virginia, north to Myrtle, west to San Antonio, west to Mesa, north to Montana and back to the city hall.

The reviewing stand will be at city hall plaza, at which point the mayor of the city and the jubilee association committee will review the parade.

There is a keen rivalry between the different divisions of the city to make the best showing in the fraternal division of the Os-Aple parade.

There was a crowd of people gathered at the street fair Friday morning. The sports which were scheduled for that time were not held, as it had been planned to have a tag of war, a greased pig and a greased pig, but no provision for any of them was made.

CHIEF OS-APLE AND PRINCESS WANDA VISIT THE STREET FAIR.
Chief Os-Aple, princess Wanda and their court attended the street fair Thursday night. They were their Indian costumes and took in every thing from the fair. They helped the Indians sell their blankets, visited the bungalow, both of which were in the fair, and the "turkey trot" on the bandstand to the music of the Mexican boys' band, and whooped things up along the street fair row.

HARRY COPPER NOT A CARPENTER.
Harry Copper, who was arrested during the industrial parade on Wednesday afternoon as a bricklayer, not a carpenter. The carpenter, that is, the state ment be made, in justice to their union.

BIG MILLS BUILDING WITH ITS FLAGS ATTRACTS ATTENTION.
The Mills building with its myriad of flags is as much an attraction during jubilee week as the parades and street fair. The building is a mass of color and made a beautiful setting for the military parade Thursday morning.

BAND CONCERT GIVEN IN PIONEER PLAZA THURSDAY.
A band concert was given in Pioneer plaza Thursday evening for the visitors who did not attend the street fair and carnival. The concert was by Reyes's Mexican band, which played a program of popular and classic music.

PEOPLE COME FROM AS FAR NORTH AS TUCUMCARI.
The Rock Island train from the north brought many Os-Aple visitors from as far away as Tucumcari. Among them were: F. M. Clough and wife, Tucumcari; Dr. M. G. Paden and Mesdames Richard and Brazel, Carrizozo, and Paul Mayer, of White Oaks.

COME FOR THE PAGEANT.
W. W. Cox, father of Miss Blanche Cox, the queen Allam of the Mesilla valley division in the Os-Aple parade this evening, arrived Friday morning from Las Cruces, accompanied by Mrs. Cox and daughter, Miss Laura Cox. Hal, James and Albert Cox, brothers of the Mesilla valley queen, are also here for the Os-Aple day doings. Misses Tessie Rouault and Ruth Day, maids to the valley queen, are also here.

JUAREZ DENIES THAT IT IS REBEL CITY.
A protest against an article appearing in El Imparcial, the big Mexican daily, to the effect that most of the people of Juarez are rebel sympathizers is being circulated in the Mexican border town. Already about 200 names have been affixed. The article was sent by Jose Campos, local correspondent of El Imparcial, who also criticized Gen. Tracy Abernethy and boldly signed his name to the article.

"LITTLE JEFF" IN PARADE.
In the list of floats in the industrial parade on Wednesday afternoon the float of the El Paso City Text and Sewing company was "Little Jeff," a small, dressed as "Little Jeff," occupied a seat inside a tent.

Las Cruces and Mesilla Valley to Have Floats, Indians and Marchers.

EXPECT TO TAKE OFF THE PRIZES

Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley will have the position of honor in the float division of the Os-Aple parade this evening. The entire population of the upper valley, minus enough to stay at home and watch the house, came down on the Santa Fe Friday morning to participate in the closing event of the jubilee. Miss Blanche Cox, the valley's queen, and her maids, Misses Tessie Rouault and Ruth Day, are already here for the big parade and will appear on the queen's float in the Mesilla valley division. Col. Van Patton brought his Indians, the remnants of seven of the Pueblo tribes, to El Paso Friday morning and they will appear in the parade in allegorical dances. More than 250 Mesilla valley people came down for the closing day of the jubilee and will attend the reception and dance to be given in honor of the out of town visitors at the Toltex club this evening, following the parade.

The El Paso club, the Las Cruces booster organization, has had charge of the Mesilla valley division in the Os-Aple parade and has arranged for two large floats and a number of decorated automobiles to appear in the parade. The queen's float will be decorated with 2000 lilacs of the valley. A monster Easter lily will form a throne for queen Allam on this float. These lilacs were made by the women and girls of Las Cruces and were afterwards dipped in paraffine and sprinkled with diamond dust.

Floats in White and Gold.
The color-plan of the queen's float is white and gold. The queen will be dressed in a yellow gown and her maids will be dressed in white. The pages, who will be in white, will be kneeling on the float at the feet of the queen. An Indian boy in white will drive two white horses tandem in the parade. The pages to the queen will be Christine Iolas and Alleen Iolas and the ring bearer will be Peter Stokes.

The Las Cruces women who assisted in the decoration of this float are: Mrs. M. C. O'Hara, Mrs. Henry Stokes, Mrs. George Frenger, Mrs. C. C. Lyle, Mrs. Sattley, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Herbert Yoe, Miss Chavlin, and Miss Iolas. They were assisted by the entire population of Las Cruces, who worked in late and early to make the Las Cruces and Mesilla valley division a success. The float upon which queen Allam will ride cost $150 and the two floats from the upper valley cost $1000.

Big Harvest Float.
The harvest float which won first prize in the industrial parade Wednesday afternoon, will again appear in the Os-Aple parade this evening as a part of the Mesilla valley division. Miss Alia O'Hara will be the harvest queen on this float and will hold the cornucopia of the harvest. The float will be decorated with the fruits and flowers of prosperity. C. C. Lee will be Uncle Sam. Between the mountains through which the Rio Grande will run, a large elephant will stand and from its trunk pour the life giving waters of the river upon the valley. The float will be decorated with the fruits and flowers of prosperity. C. C. Lee will be Uncle Sam. Between the mountains through which the Rio Grande will run, a large elephant will stand and from its trunk pour the life giving waters of the river upon the valley.

An Allegorical Design.
The Las Cruces division of the parade is in its nature and will show the development of the Mesilla valley from an arid desert to the present prosperous state. The Indians will be followed by the early pioneers and the cowboys, the frontiers, prospectors and modern ranchers in the valley. The Indians will be followed by the early pioneers and the cowboys, the frontiers, prospectors and modern ranchers in the valley. The Indians will be followed by the early pioneers and the cowboys, the frontiers, prospectors and modern ranchers in the valley.

Has Won Three Prizes.
The automobile of L. E. Ruble, covered with grass and fern products, will appear in the Mesilla valley division this evening. It was in the industrial parade and won first prize. It took first prize at the Albuquerque and Las Cruces fairs.

Oscar Snow, the owner of the 1000 ranch in the Mesilla valley, has arranged a beautiful float for the parade and will make an effort to win the cup for the best individual float. Mr. Snow has always been an able assistant in getting exhibits for the El Paso fairs and in sending down exhibits from his ranch, the biggest in the Mesilla valley.

Crucesites to March.
The Las Cruces people will march in the parade as members of the El Paso club.

Mark B. Thompson, of Las Cruces, will be one of Gen. E. Z. Steever's civilian aides in the parade representing the upper valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrin A. Foster, publishers of the Las Cruces Record, are here to arrange for the display of the upper valley at the fair.

A "Who's who in Las Cruces" might have been compiled from the pages of the various hotels of El Paso Friday day, so great was the influx of arrivals from the Mesilla valley.

Among those at the Sheldon were W. H. Hogue and wife and Mark B. Thompson. Las Cruces will have a number of allegorical floats in the Os-Aple parade representing the pre-Caucasian occupation of the Mesilla valley.

Among Las Cruces people arriving on the morning train were Misses Ruth Day and Blanche Cox, L. E. Malone and wife, Henry Stokes and wife, P. E. Lucero and wife, Mrs. Miss Sammerford, E. C. Wade, Jr. and wife, and Mrs. Tom Rhodes.

Eugene Van Patton with 68 Mesilla Indians dressed in native costume and decorated with ribbons of many colors, also came in on the morning train. The Indians will take part in the Os-Aple parade. Upon arrival at the station they were marshaled for review and then paraded to their quarters on Kinross street, where they will remain until assigned to their position in the parade.

BECKER SENTENCED TO THE CHAIR FOR MURDER

New York Police Captain Is Convicted of the Murder of Rosenthal, Gambler—Wife of Prisoner Swoons at the Verdict—His Lawyer Has Confidence that the Case Will Be Reversed on Appeal.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Police lieutenant Charles Becker was found guilty this morning early of murder in the first degree by the jury which had been trying him for instigating the death of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler. The penalty is death in the electric chair. The verdict was pronounced at 12:32 o'clock this morning.

Becker did not flinch when he heard the verdict pronounced by Harold B. Skinner, foreman of the jury. John P. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel, announced that he would take an immediate appeal, but beyond this he had nothing to say.

The verdict read: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree."

Becker was remanded for sentence to the Tombs by Justice Goff until October 26.

Jury Unanimously Agreed.
The 12 jurors filed into the courtroom at 11:55 o'clock. A minute later the defendant was brought in from the Tombs. Justice Goff had not yet entered the room and for a moment Becker took a side seat. As he waited, he scanned the faces of the jurors, but none of them returned his gaze. A tense silence prevailed.

At 11:57 o'clock Justice Goff entered the courtroom, and, bowing the Jews to the counsel, took his seat. The jury roll was called. The clerk then asked the jurors if they had reached a verdict. "We have," announced the foreman Skinner. The jurors rose to their feet.

"We find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment," Skinner said, looking squarely at Justice Goff.

"Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged in the indictment?" asked the clerk.

"We do," the foreman replied.

The court then directed that the roll of the jurors be called for their individual verdicts. As he repeated the question, "Do you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree as charged?" each juror answered, "I do."

Becker Apparently Unmoved.
Becker stood at the bar with squared shoulders, head erect; not a muscle moved in his face, but he swallowed hard. "That was all. When the last juror had answered, Justice Goff instructed the clerk to take the pedegree of the defendant. Becker answered the questions in a low, firm voice. A court officer brought the questions to him, written on a slip of paper, and as the prisoner read them to himself, he repeated:

"Forty-two years old; American citizen; born in Germany; address 3225 Avenue C, New York; married; mother living; habits temperate; never convicted before."

When Becker's voice died away, Mr. McIntyre asked that all further proceedings be deferred for one week, "until I can prepare the proper motion for appeal."

"I will defer sentence," announced Justice Goff, "until October 30, and remand the prisoner until that date."

Becker glanced at the judge and treated his eyes a moment on the jury. Then he turned and, followed by a jail warden, walked with unflinching rapid steps up the aisle of the courtroom and disappeared through the door leading over the "Bridge of Sighs" to the Tombs.

Jury Out Eight Hours.
The jury had deliberated nearly eight hours before reaching the verdict, although the case had been in their hands since 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Actual deliberation began at 4:30 o'clock, when the doors of the Tombs.

CUDANS RIOT; DEMOCRATS IN TWO MEN SHOT FORTS ARE NEW MEXICO WOUNDED LEADING

A Brisk Street Battle Is Fought Between Conservatives and Liberals.

POLICE CHARGE MOB WITH MACHETES

Havana, Cuba, Oct. 25.—A brisk battle between Conservatives and Liberals during which several hundred shots were fired and 40 people wounded, broke out after midnight in Central park in the heart of the city, at the close of a meeting of supporters of vice president Alfredo Zayas, who is a candidate for the presidency.

The meeting was peacefully proceeding until the last speaker ascended the platform, when a number of shots were fired, apparently by a group of Conservatives gathered in front of a hotel. Instantly the crowd began to disperse and the fusillade became general, extending across the park and down the Prado. For ten minutes the firing was general.

Strong forces of mounted police and cavalry charged repeatedly with drawn sabres and rifles, and the mob returned the fire from the windows and porches of the houses.

A crowd of adherents of Zayas halted in front of the Asbert club, firing volleys at the windows, the shots being returned from the balconies of the club by the supporters of Gen. Asbert, Conservative candidate for the governorship of Havana.

Reinforcements of police, rural guards and soldiers arrived, and the mob composed of adherents of both parties was driven from the park and gradually dispersed. Afterwards the park was occupied by a strong force of cavalry for the remainder of the night.

Two Women Among Wounded.
The total of the wounded, who included two women, was about 40, of which several were fatally hurt.

Immediately after the firing had ceased the police raided the Asbert club, searched for weapons and arrested several members.

MAY ATTEMPT TO GET BAIL FOR CASEY SOON
An attempt to have John P. Casey, Jr. released on bond through a habeas corpus proceeding is expected at any time, according to district attorney Joseph M. Nealon. Mr. Nealon stated that Victor Moore, one of Casey's attorneys, had stated that he intended instituting such a proceeding. With the exception of two weeks that Casey spent at one of the local hospitals, he has been confined in the county jail since Aug. 2.

QUOTES DEFENDANT AS SAYING HE KILLED MAN.
Lake Charles, La., Oct. 24.—Over a prolonged protest of attorneys for the defense in the Grabow murder trial, L. T. Mahony, former organizer for the Brotherhood of Timber Workers, was allowed to quote Ed Lehman, one of the defendants as follows:

"They have the wrong man in jail. I did the dirty work. I killed that scab."

Lehman, the witness said, was talking about the riot, then 10 days old.

"I go. It is meet that I do this, for my stay has been long from the topees of my tribe and I am growing weary. But I will come again when the harvest moon has reached its full and the mountains are silver in its light."

"To you, my paleface people, I give blessing. May they fall upon you as the needles fall from the pines in my mountains of tomorrow. I have done what I can for the people of this nation. In the year of plenty 1912."

Appear to Have the Best of Things if the Election Could Be Held Now.

REPUBLICANS ARE BECOMING ACTIVE

(By George H. Clements.)
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 25.—As election day approaches, the campaign for votes warms up but the apathy complained of by all parties since the nominating conventions continues, especially in the smaller towns and in the rural, or grazing and farming districts. They refuse to be made to change over the election of presidential electors or congressmen.

At state headquarters, Republican, Democratic and "Progressive" Republicans are being made, but to the casual observer who travels from town to town and mixes with the people with the sole object in view of finding out the trend of public opinion, it seems patent at this stage of the game that the Democrats are better placed than the claims of their rivals.

Democrats Abound.
Where the elections to be held today there seems to be no reason to doubt that the Democrats would carry the state. That the electors of the military fact that the Democrats have been most active up to this time. The assault upon Mr. Roosevelt caused the "Progressive" Democrats to leave the party in the past two days the leaders of that party have shown a disposition to come out and mix with the people and with campaign literature. To hear them tell it their campaign is making many votes drawn from both old parties.

Republicans Wake Up.
The Republican leaders, too, who hitherto have been going their work along gumnose lines have put campfire in the field, whose duty it is to meet and talk with individual voters, particularly those who have shown signs of wavering.

Daily reports are being received by chairman Clark and judges from the various counties, showing the work being done. Mr. Clark will not agree that there will be such a great falling off in the vote of New Mexico this year as occurred in the corresponding year several years ago. Nor will chairman Hindup, of the Democratic committee, who is expected to be anything like the pessimists quoted in the article referred to. Each will admit that there is a slight falling off of votes, but he says that with the active work now being done every voter will be reached and nearly all induced to go to the polls.

Socialists Active.
The Socialists who last year cast 1500 votes are again for their national ticket solidly this year and their leaders say that the Debs electors will get not less than 2500 votes. They expect to draw those Republicans who are not in accord with Taft, but who won't go to the polls. Fair means have been organized who regard Wilson as too conservative.

SAYS WILSON MISREPRESENTS ATTITUDE OF PROGRESSIVES.
Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—That governor Wilson and his advocates have misrepresented the attitude of the Progressive party toward the trusts, was charged here by governor Johnson in a speech at the auditorium.

"The Democratic candidate for president and his advocates persistently repeat widely disseminated a statement in regard to our attitude on the trusts, that is without foundation and contrary to the facts," he declared.

"They say that we intend to legalize monopolies and to give them a monopoly. We propose to utilize every law that exists for the repression and the control of the trusts and to prevent other men from supplying any deficiency in the very law itself to lay down certain requirements and then have the industrial commission that we propose to see that the trusts live up to their requirements. We expect to put the very requirements in the law itself."

PRESIDENT TAFT MAKES APPEAL TO FARMERS.
Beverly, Mass., Oct. 25.—President Taft has made public appeal to farmers of Minnesota (and the northwest to remain true to their Republican beliefs of past campaigns.

The political arguments submitted for consideration of rural voters were advanced in a letter which the president sent to governor A. O. Eberhart, of Minnesota, stating that while the Republican party had not made the sun to shine or the crops to grow, it had Diaz Himself Has His Trial Before Military Court Temporarily Stayed.

OTHERS MAY BE SHOT FOR SEDITION

Veracruz, Mex., Oct. 25.—Two of the captured officers of the staff of Felix Diaz were shot by the federal troops at half past ten last evening after being sentenced to death by summary court martial. The execution was carried out with absolute secrecy. Their names were Maj. Zarate and Maj. Cueto.

The court martial began its sessions at 6 o'clock in the evening, and its judgment must be delivered and the verdicts put into effect within 72 hours from the time of meeting.

Maj. Fernando Zarate and Maj. Julian Villas are pleading on behalf of Diaz, who, according to military law, is liable to imprisonment for from three to eight years.

Public opinion against Diaz, however, is so strong that it is thought a sentence of death may be pronounced on him as well as on all the officers and government officials who joined his cause and were captured.

The troops, however, who rebelled, will in all likelihood not be punished. The court martial is to be brought before the court martial this afternoon.

May Execute Diaz.
Gen. Belandier, military commander, has been informed that Diaz and the other rebel officers captured are to be executed unless they agree to a military code. It is reported that Capt. Garmendia Madero brought the message and if the orders are carried out, mean that Diaz and his comrades will be executed.

When Diaz was captured he was being sent south from Puebla by the Interoceanic railway.

Governor Lugo Chazaro has arrived from Jalisco, where the entire state is quiet except at Tuxtla, where 200 followers of Diaz still hold out. Government troops have been sent to fight them.

After Gen. Aguilar.
Col. Tapia, chief of the federal regulars, has been ordered to the northern part of the state to oppose Gen. Higinio Aguilar, the revolutionary leader, marching south from Puebla.

Col. Diaz Ordaz, the federal officer who joined Felix Diaz with his troops, has not been captured. Therefore most of the officers of the regiment have been set at liberty.

The small arms and ammunition distributed by Diaz among the inhabitants are being searched for by the police.

Volunteers May Be Imprisoned.
Six of the volunteers who joined Diaz belonged to the leading families of the city. Those of them who may be captured will be sentenced to short terms of imprisonment, but many of them have escaped to the country.

Commodore Amets, of the federal navy, collected last evening from Gen. Belandier, the federal commander in chief, who received him coldly, telling him that he did not accept a definite attitude during the revolution. It is reported that the commodore also is to be court martialled.

The garrison of Veracruz consists of 2500 men of all branches of the service. The city is perfectly quiet and business generally has been resumed.

Court Stays Diaz's Trial.
Mexico City, Mex., Oct. 25.—A writ removing Gen. Felix Diaz, the rebel leader, from the jurisdiction of the military court, was granted last night by the federal judge of the first district court here. The writ was taken on the plea of Legist. Col. Munoz, a cousin of Felix Diaz.

The full court will decide whether Diaz is to be returned to the jurisdiction of the military court of trial before a civil tribunal.

Government officials insist that Diaz is entitled to military jurisdiction under the constitutional provisions against those who incite the army to revolt.

Democratizes For Madero.
A demonstration in favor of the Mexican government was held last evening when a large number of people carried the streets waving banners and shouting: "Hurrah for the Mexican government! Death to Diaz!"

A detachment of mounted police kept in close touch with the demonstrators and no disorder occurred.
